

Invertis University Hosts "Masquerade" - A Night of Elegance and Farewell

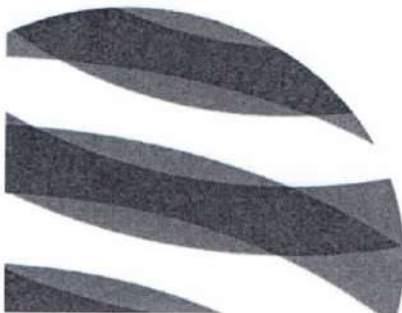

Invertis University, Bareilly - April 29, 2022 - The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication at Invertis University is proud to present "Masquerade," a grand farewell party to mark the end of the academic year 2022-23. This much-anticipated event is set to take place at Seminar Hall 2 on April 29, 2022, and promises an enchanting night of sophistication and farewell festivities.

"Masquerade" will transport attendees to an era of mystery and allure, encouraging them to don elegant masks, representing the complexities and beauty of their academic journey. The event aims to celebrate the achievements and memories of the departing students while providing a platform to showcase their creativity and style.

The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication extends an invitation to all faculty, students, and supporters to join "Masquerade" and partake in an elegant evening of farewells and aspirations.
