

Name of the Cell/Department: The Responsible Invention Club

Academic year: 2018-19

Name of the program: Atal Rakt Dhaan Shivar

Date: 27-9-2018

Venue: Seminar Hall 1

Description: Blood donation camp by Invertis University, Bareilly

Title: "Atal Rakt Dhaan Shivar" Blood Donation Camp by The Responsible Invention Club

During the academic year 2018-19, The Responsible Invention Club at Invertis University, Bareilly, organized a commendable initiative named "Atal Rakt Dhaan Shivar," a Blood Donation Camp held on September 27, 2018, at Seminar Hall 1. The event exemplified the club's commitment to social welfare and community service.

"Atal Rakt Dhaan Shivar" aimed to address the critical need for blood donations and promote a culture of altruism among students and faculty. The camp provided a platform for individuals to contribute to society by donating blood, thereby potentially saving lives.

The Seminar Hall 1 was transformed into a hub of goodwill and compassion as students, faculty, and staff actively participated in the noble cause. The event witnessed a substantial turnout, reflecting the enthusiasm and support of the university community towards the initiative.

The Responsible Invention Club's endeavor in organizing the blood donation camp underscored the university's dedication to social responsibility and healthcare awareness. The event not only facilitated the collection of blood units but also sensitized individuals about the significance of regular blood donation for medical emergencies.

"Atal Rakt Dhaan Shivar" wasn't just a camp; it was an embodiment of humanity's spirit, emphasizing the importance of unity in contributing to societal welfare. The event left a profound impact, fostering a culture of compassion, empathy, and a sense of responsibility among the participants.

By spearheading this initiative, The Responsible Invention Club demonstrated the power of collective action in creating a positive impact on society. The camp exemplified Invertis University's ethos of instilling values of empathy and social commitment in its students, nurturing future leaders with a strong sense of community responsibility.

"Atal Rakt Dhaan Shivar" will be remembered as an event that transcended mere donations, leaving a lasting imprint of humanitarian values and societal consciousness within the university's fabric.

Coordinator

Registrar
Invertis University
Bareilly