Description:

During the academic year 2018-19, the Department of Engineering at Invertis University, Bareilly, kick started the year with a vibrant and engaging event, the "Novato Fiesta," held on August 29, 2018, at Seminar Hall 1. This event was specifically designed as a freshers' party coupled with talent competitions, creating a memorable and inclusive introduction for new students to the department and university.

The "Novato Fiesta" was a blend of fun-filled activities and talent showcases. The event's primary objective was to welcome and integrate new students into the university's vibrant academic and social culture. It provided a platform for freshers to exhibit their talents and skills through various competitions, fostering a sense of community and camaraderie among the students.

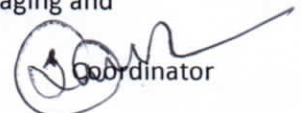

The Seminar Hall 1 buzzed with excitement and enthusiasm as new students showcased their diverse talents, ranging from singing, dancing, poetry recitals, to other unique skills. The event not only encouraged participation but also served as an opportunity for students to connect with their peers and faculty members.

The success of the "Novato Fiesta" was evident in the lively participation of the freshers and the overwhelming support from existing students and faculty. The event helped forge new friendships and establish a welcoming atmosphere within the department, setting a positive tone for the academic year ahead.

By organizing this event, the Department of Engineering demonstrated its commitment to providing a holistic and enjoyable university experience. The "Novato Fiesta" exemplified the department's dedication to nurturing talent, fostering inclusivity, and building a sense of belonging among students.

The event's impact extended beyond its entertainment value; it laid the groundwork for a supportive and collaborative environment where students felt valued, encouraged, and excited about their journey at Invertis University.

The "Novato Fiesta" served as a memorable beginning, setting the stage for an engaging and enriching academic year within the Department of Engineering.
