Description:

In the academic year 2018-19, the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication at Invertis University orchestrated a dazzling cultural fest named "Shimmering Stars 2k18" on September 2, 2018, held at Seminar Hall 2. The event, a testament to the department's vibrancy, showcased a diverse array of talent and cultural richness.

"Shimmering Stars 2k18" was a celebration of creativity and artistic expression. The fest served as a melting pot of talent, featuring various performances encompassing music, dance, theater, and other forms of cultural expression. The event encapsulated the essence of diversity, allowing students to exhibit their talents while embracing different cultures and traditions.

Seminar Hall 2 was transformed into a hub of artistic brilliance, resonating with melodies, rhythms, and vibrant hues. Participants captivated the audience with their performances, evoking emotions and celebrating the richness of cultural diversity.

The success of "Shimmering Stars 2k18" lay in its ability to create a platform for students to showcase their talents and foster a sense of unity among attendees. The fest not only entertained but also encouraged appreciation and understanding of various cultural nuances.

The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication's endeavor in organizing "Shimmering Stars 2k18" emphasized the university's commitment to nurturing creativity and cultural exploration. By curating an event that encapsulated the essence of diversity, the department contributed significantly to fostering a vibrant and inclusive environment within Invertis University.

"Shimmering Stars 2k18" will be remembered as an event that not only celebrated talent but also promoted cultural harmony and appreciation among students and faculty. It set the stage for a year filled with artistic endeavors, collaborative learning, and a deeper understanding of diverse cultural expressions within the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication.
