

Invertis University's Cultural Club "Rock On" Hosts Electrifying Talent Showcase: "Break Away"

The Cultural Club "Rock On" at Invertis University hosted an electrifying cultural event, "Break Away," on September 27, 2018, at the Front Lawn of Academic Block 1. The event, organized in collaboration with Abhiruchi – The Hobby Club, showcased an array of talent shows, captivating the audience with a diverse range of performances.

The event celebrated the spirit of creativity and talent, featuring music performances, dance showcases, poetry recitals, and art exhibitions. "Break Away" provided a platform for students to display their skills and passion, fostering a vibrant atmosphere of artistic expression and cultural celebration within the university.

The Cultural Club "Rock On" continues to be a driving force in promoting cultural diversity and nurturing talent within the university community.
