

Name of the Cell/Department: The Panache Club
Academic year: 2018-19
Name of the program: Legal consultation for gender issues
Date: 15/08/2018
Venue: Bareilly College, Bareilly

Description:

The Panache Club of Invertis University organized Legal consultation on gender issues remains a critical component in promoting equality, justice, and fair treatment for all individuals. With a comprehensive understanding of existing legal frameworks, continuous advocacy, and informed guidance, legal professionals can make a substantial impact in addressing and resolving gender-related concerns within society.

This report serves as a broad overview of the landscape and the critical role of legal consultation in navigating and resolving gender-related legal issues.

Legal consultation for gender issues creative 15/08/2018

Students attending moot court 15/08/2018

Alakes
Coordinator

[Signature]
Registrar
Invertis University
Bareilly