

Name of the Cell/Department: Department of Education

Academic year: 2022-23

Name of the program: One Week FDP on “Innovations in Assessment and Evaluation”

Date: August 7th -11th, 2022

Venue: Google Meet

Description:

The Department of Education, Invertis University, in collaboration with the College of Agriculture, Banda University, successfully conducted a comprehensive One Week Faculty Development Program (FDP) on “Innovations in Assessment and Evaluation” from 7th-11th, August 2022. The primary aim of the One Week Faculty Development Program was to equip educators and researchers with innovative strategies, tools, and best practices in assessment and evaluation. The program sought to promote effective, student-centered assessment methods that enhance learning outcomes and contribute to the overall improvement of educational practices.

The FDP commenced with a formal inauguration ceremony, bringing together participants, faculty members, and program organizers. It set the tone for a week of exploration into innovative assessment and evaluation techniques. The program featured keynote addresses by distinguished experts in the field of education and assessment. These addresses provided a conceptual framework and motivation for embracing innovative assessment practices.

A total of 130 participants benefited from this event. The list of programs included in this event was inaugural speech, talk by the guest speakers, Q&A session summarization, concluding remarks and vote of thanks. At the end of the program the convener has taken the feedback from the participants. The key takeaways from the feedbacks of the participants are: Participants highlighted the significant improvement in their assessment and evaluation skills, including the ability to design innovative assessments that align with learning objectives.

|  |   |
|--|---|
|  | The Department of Education, Invertis University, in collaboration with the College of Agriculture, Banda University, successfully conducted a comprehensive One Week Faculty Development Program (FDP) on “Innovations in Assessment and Evaluation” from 7th-11th, August 2022. The primary aim of the One Week Faculty Development Program was to equip educators and researchers with innovative strategies, tools, and best practices in assessment and evaluation. The program sought to promote effective, student-centered assessment methods that enhance learning outcomes and contribute to the overall improvement of educational practices. The FDP commenced with a formal inauguration ceremony, bringing together participants, faculty members, and program organizers. It set the tone for a week of exploration into innovative assessment and evaluation techniques. The program featured keynote addresses by distinguished experts in the field of education and assessment. These addresses provided a conceptual framework and motivation for embracing innovative assessment practices. |
|  |   |

Deepeeka
Coordinator